Members: $50 | Non-Members: $150

TARGET AUDIENCE:

CNAs, Caregivers, QMAPs

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

Ensuring An Abuse-Free Environment is an all-day training program geared at preventing abuse by addressing the challenges that face CNAs and Caregivers on a daily basis.

This popular course helps participants discover ways to solve care-giving problems without resorting to verbal, mental, or physical abuse, and provides tips for coping with job stress.

Ample opportunity is provided for CNAs and Caregivers to discuss issues and ask questions in this interactive, informative class.

This course focuses on how to treat residents with dignity and respect, and has been offered by CHCA/CCAL for several years due to its valuable information and consistently high evaluations.

Here's what participants have said about the course:

"This seminar should be mandatory for all CNAs in Colorado!"

"Donna Singer is great! She answered all our questions and alleviated our concerns."

"The day just flew by. Thank you for teaching me new skills."

Topics Covered Include:

- Recognition of abuse
- Reporting suspected abuse
- Possible causes of abuse
- Understanding and not personalizing resident behavior
- Managing Caregiver stress
- Abuse prevention techniques
