Course Overview: Prove Your Excellence with DNS-CT Certification

Take your leadership and management talents to the next level with a preparatory workshop for AADNS's Director of Nursing Services-Certified (DNS-CT) certification. Earning this credential validates your expertise, gives you advantage among your peers, and helps you improve quality, communication, and resident care throughout your facility. The DNS-CT credential from AADNS shows that you have the leadership and management skills and knowledge to excel as a DON. Certification indicates that you have met nationally recognized standards of expertise for directors of nursing services in long-term care, that you are up-to-date with the rules and regulations, and that you can lead and nurture your team. This three-day workshop will complement your nursing expertise with leadership and management skills. Workshops are taught by individuals who go through rigorous requirements to become Master Teachers and who are experts in the field.

This workshop covers the following content from DNS-CT courses for the nurse leader:

- Leadership & Management
- Risk Management
- Quality Assurance and Performance Improvement
- Human Resource Management
- Survey Readiness 24/7/365
- Survey Management and Enforcement
- Quality Indicator Survey Essentials
- Essential Business Skills
- MDS and Medicare Process Essentials

- Care Management and Surveillance Systems

To earn the credential, you must be an RN and pass the DNS-CT certification examination with a score of 80% or better.
